

Scandinavia

10 Days

Day 1/2: Stockholm

Arrive in Stockholm, meet your Teach by Travel tour manager, and transfer to your hotel for check-in. Rest of the day at leisure.

Day 3: Stockholm

Guided tour of Stockholm - marvel at the contrast between the 13th century Old Town and the modern high-tech architecture. Enjoy an inside visit to the City Hall, where the Nobel Festivities take place in the Blue and Golden Halls, and a memorable visit to the Cathedral of Stockholm. Free afternoon for further exploration before dinner and overnight in Stockholm.

Day 4: Stockholm - Overnight Ferry to Helsinki

Free morning to shop for a perfect souvenir of Stockholm, before transferring to the pier to board a cruise/ferry to Helsinki. Enjoy a buffet dinner on board.

Day 5: Helsinki - Stockholm

Arrive Helsinki, disembark from your ferry, and start your guided tour of the capital of Finland, Helsinki. See the Senate Square, the University and the Lutheran Cathedral - all displaying neo-classical architecture from the 1840's, the colorful Market Square, Kaivopuisto Park, the Parliament Building, the Orthodox Russian Church, and the fascinating Temppeliaukio Church, also called the "Rock Church" as it is carved into solid rock. Free time for further exploration of Helsinki, before boarding your coach to transfer to the pier. Board the Tallink Silja ferry for your return journey to Stockholm. Buffet dinner served on-board.

Day 6: Stockholm - Copenhagen

Buffet breakfast before disembarking in Stockholm. Board your coach, and journey to one of the most picturesque towns in Sweden, Granna. The quaint town, located on Lake Vattern, features steep cross-streets and magnificent gardens. Enjoy an included lunch in lovely Granna before continuing through the Swedish countryside, before boarding a ferry to Denmark. Board your coach and stop at Kronberg Castle, also known as Hamlet's Castle, before arriving in Copenhagen. Dinner on your own tonight.

Day 7: Copenhagen

Guided city sightseeing tour of Copenhagen, starting on the famous pedestrian street, "Stroget." See the Old Stock Exchange, the Naval Church, the old canal area, the Gefion Fountain, and a photo stop at the Royal Residence, Amalienborg Palace. No tour of Copenhagen would be complete without seeing the Little Mermaid, from the Hans Christian Andersen fairy tale! Free afternoon to further explore Copenhagen, before your dinner in Tivoli Gardens, which dates from 1843.

Day 8: Copenhagen - Overnight Ferry to Oslo

Leisure time in Copenhagen for your personal sightseeing agenda, before transferring to an overnight ferry bound for Oslo. Buffet dinner will be served on-board.

Day 9: Oslo

Buffet breakfast on board. Arrive Oslo for a guided tour of the Norwegian capital, including Bygdoy Island, where entrance is included to the Viking Ship Museum, with its three Viking vessels. Enjoy Vigeland Sculpture Park, one of the major Scandinavian cultural treasures, featuring the sculptures of Gustav Vigeland. The rest of the day is at leisure to explore the Viking Capital. You may want to take a stroll to the Akershus Fortress and Akershus Castle, or walk along the water and down to the Aker Brygge, the popular harbour area filled with lively cafes and restaurants. Dinner on your own tonight as you conclude your Scandinavian Adventure!
